

Terms of Service

1. Parties

This agreement is between you ("You" or "Your" in this agreement) and Touch Titan Labs, LLC ("Software Developer").

2. Service Offered

Software Developer has created a means for users to access, and transfer ownership of, virtual currency tokens (such as bitcoins) under the name "Coin Pouch". By entering into this agreement You will receive a license to use the Coin Pouch Software as an individual. This is limited to personal use only. For questions on multi-seat or corporate licenses email us: sales@touchtitans.com

You should only use the Coin Pouch Software if you are familiar with virtual currencies.

The Coin Pouch Software is licensed to you without charge with the exception of transaction fees which are required for sending virtual currencies from the Coin Pouch application.

3. Private Keys

Software Developer does not store users' private keys or passwords ("Private Information"). It is very important that You backup Private Information. If You lose Your Private Information then it will not be possible for Software Developer to recover it.

4. User Obligations

You shall:

- a) be of age of majority in Your local jurisdiction; and,
- b) be responsible for Your own virtual currency tokens; and,
- c) backup/write down Your "private keys" and keep it private; and,
- d) carefully review the list of supported virtual currency tokens before engaging in any transactions; and,
- e) ensure that Your device(s) are fully updated and do not contain viruses, malware or otherwise malicious software.

You shall not:

- a) deposit virtual currency tokens into addresses for tokens that are not supported by Coin Pouch; or,
- b) use the Coin Pouch Software in a manner contrary to Your local laws.

5. Limited Intellectual Property License

This agreement licenses the Coin Pouch Software to You on a personal, non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable, worldwide-basis, for the purpose of holding and transferring virtual currencies. You are not permitted to re-distribute the Coin Pouch Software, modify any code or use any Coin Pouch Software content, including images and text, as part of any other software or project of any kind. For partnership inquiries please contact Software Developer through email: sales@touchtitans.com

6. Transactions

The Coin Pouch Software provides functionality that allows You to send virtual currency transfer instructions. Software Developer does not guarantee that transactions You perform using the Coin Pouch Software shall be stored in any virtual currency blockchain. You must ensure that Your transactions conform to the applicable rules of the virtual currency software.

There may be transaction fees (e.g. mining fees) associated with Your virtual currency transactions that are required by the virtual currency system You engage with. Software Developer shall not be responsible for any losses You incur due to transaction fees.

7. No Control Over Blockchains

Software Developer is not the creator of, and does not have any control over, any of the virtual currencies that the Coin Pouch Software allows You to use.

8. Feedback & Ideas

If You choose to provide feedback on the features or functions of the Coin Pouch Software ("Feedback") then You shall be deemed to have given permission to Software Developer to incorporate Your Submitted Feedback into the Coin Pouch Software. Software Developer shall be free to make use of Your Submitted Feedback without royalty or obligation of any kind.

9. Disclaimed Risks

Using virtual currency software necessarily entails many risks. Software Developer specifically disclaims and shall have no liability to You for the following risks:

- a) operating system failures (mobile or desktop); and,
 - b) interactions between Your hardware, software and the Coin Pouch Software; and,
 - c) malware, viruses or other malicious software on Your device that is able to take control of or interfere with the Coin Pouch Software; and,
 - d) communication delays between Your Coin Pouch Software and a node or relay service for a virtual currency (and vice versa); and,
 - e) failure to achieve a certain market value/price for a virtual currency token, whether through a third-party service or any other kind of transaction; and,
- theft of virtual currency tokens.

10. No Warranty

The Coin Pouch Software is provided to You at no cost, "as-is" and without any warranty whatsoever, to the maximum extent permissible by law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Software Developer does not warrant that the Coin Pouch Software is fit for Your purpose, even if You have previously provided notice of Your intended purpose, and does not warrant that the Coin Pouch Software will operate in a bug-free manner.

11. Limitation of Liability

Software Developer's liability to You shall not, under any circumstances, exceed the greater of $50 USD.

12. Indemnity

You agree to indemnify Software Developer against any claims, damages, losses or legal fees incurred due to Your use (or misuse) of the Coin Pouch Software.

13. Non-Waiver

No action or inaction on the part of Software Developer shall be considered a waiver of any right or obligation by Software Developer.

14. Amendment

This agreement may be amended by Software Developer by providing You with 30 days notice of any proposed change. If You do not agree to the amended terms then Your sole remedy shall be to cease using the Coin Pouch Software.

15. Assignment

You may not assign this agreement. Software Developer may assign this agreement upon 15 days notice.

16. Governing Law and Choice of Forum

This agreement shall be governed by the laws of Texas. Any disputes related to this agreement or the Coin Pouch Software shall be heard in the courts of Dallas, TX USA.

17. Entire Agreement

This is the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any other agreement, representations (or misrepresentations), or understanding, however communicated.
